THREE DRAW TERMS IN REFORMATORY

Raymond Foreman, 21, Mier Dunn, 17, And Wayne Chandler, 20, Plead Guilty Of Conspiracy

PASSED FORGED $25 CHECK

Each Fined $25 And Sentenced To Serve From Two To Fourteen Years—Earl Hall Stays Fine

Three young men, charged with conspiracy, were arraigned this afternoon in the circuit court before Judge Sparks, and each entered pleas of guilty, and received a fine of $25 and a sentence of 2 to 14 years at the state reformatory. The men gave their names as Raymond Foreman, 21, Mier Dunn, 17 and Wayne Chandler, 20.

The trio was arrested late last Friday, it will be recalled, as the result of passing a forged check on John D. Farlow of near Milroy, and cashed at the J. L. Cowing, Son and Company's store for the amount of $25.

The men were charged with conspiring with each other to secure the money by means of fraud and making a payment on an automobile. Foreman also was charged with the forgery, as he was the one who passed the check at the local store.

All three were arraigned at two o'clock this afternoon and admitted their guilt. After a short lecture to them, Judge Sparks passed sentence on them, stating that he was not familiar with them or their previous history to suspend the sentence. The court stated that if they showed a willingness to do better, that he would gladly assist them in getting their freedom from the reformatory at some future date.

Foreman stated that his home was in Morris, south of Greensburg. Dunn said that he was living in New Salem, and formerly lived in Milroy, and Chandler said that he lived near Milroy.

Sheriff Hunt will probably leave in a day or two for the reformatory, where they will begin serving their sentences.

Earl Hall, convicted of unlawful possession of liquor, who went to jail last Saturday from police court on default of the payment of a $100 fine and costs, was released this morning, when provisions was made for him to have his fine stayed. The sentence of 90 days had been suspended by Mayor Thomas.

INSPECTION HELD AT LOCAL ARMORY

Captain William O. Shrum, United States Army Inspector, Visits Company C, 151st Infantry

OTHER OFFICERS WITH HIM

Company C, 151st Infantry, Indiana National Guard, of this city, was inspected Saturday night by Captain William O. Shrum, United States army inspector, who is stationed at Bowling Green, Ky., with the Kentucky National Guard.

Fifty-four men and three officers were in line when the inspection was held at the company armory in South Perkins street. Captain Shrum and a number of other army officers who are accompanying him on his tour of inspection of National Guard infantry units in Indiana, came here from Shelbyville where a similar inspection was held.

Capt. Shrum was accompanied by Major Albert T. Rich of Indianapolis, D. O. L., senior instructor in the Indiana National Guard; Major Albert H. Whitecomb, of Indianapolis, commanding officer of the first battalion, 151st Indiana Infantry, assigned to the Guard as an instructor; Captain David R. Estill of Shelbyville, D. O. L., infantry instructor; Captain Bush, D. O. L., infantry instructor in the state of Michigan.

TO OBSERVE THE HOLIDAY

Banks to Close Thursday and Post-office Will Close at 10 a. m.

On account of Thursday being Washington's Birthday anniversary, and a national holiday, the postoffice will observe the regular holiday order of business. No rural delivery will be made, nor any residence delivery in Rushville. The business district will be taken care of by one delivery. The windows at the postoffice will close at ten o'clock.

The holiday also will be observed by the banking institutions of Rushville but all other business houses remain open as usual, including the barber shops, who do not observe this national holiday.

BIG FRENCH TROOP MOVEMENT BEGINS

Encircling Movement Indicated Will Add Greatly To Territory Held By The Invaders

SOCIALISTS FAVOR "PEACE"

Insist German Chancellor Not Only Miss No Opportunity To Negotiate For Terms

(By United Press)
Berlin, Feb. 20.—A big French troop movement is proceeding in the direction of Darmstadt and Mannheim, according to an official message from Mayence.

Darmstadt is capital of the German state of Hessen, while Mannheim, important industrial center, is in the northern part of Baden. An advance such as described by the Mayence dispatch to Berlin would be in the nature of an encircling movement that would add greatly to the territory occupied since invasion of the Ruhr six weeks ago. The Germans are fearful of French occupation of Mannheim and claimed that invasion of Baden was begun with this in view.

(By CARL D. GROAT

Essen, Feb. 20.—German Socialists are now ready for an "honorable peace" with the French on the basis of payment of "a reasonable reparation."

They not only insist that Chancellor Cuno miss no opportunity to open negotiations but demand he do so immediately.

Unlike the Pan-German, the Socialists are not insisting on the formula: "First take the troops out before negotiations are started."

I have the foregoing information—the most important single development since the Ruhr venture reached a deadlock—from Otto Chrysomanski, secretary of the Essen division of the Socialist Democratic party. The Socialists, with over 100,000 paying members constitute the largest political group here.

The Krupps, and other industrialists, are doing their utmost to keep the workers in line, even going to the extent of offering them shares in the companies for which they work.

Social lines that for ages have separated such families as those of their employes are being broken down in a desperate effort to unite the Krupps and the Thyssens from employer and worker in the Ruhr and prevent socialists and communists from "spilling the beans" at a moment when big business is fighting.

SENATE TACKS ON SEEKS ANNULMENT SUM OF $234,320 OF HER MARRIAGE

Sitting as Committee as Whole, Amendments Increase State Appropriations Are Adopted

ONE ON RURAL POLICE FAILS

Eighteen Measures Fail to Pass in House When Reports to Postpone Indefinitely Pass

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 20.—Amendments to increase the sixteen million dollar appropriation for the state government by $234,320 were adopted by the state senate today, sitting as a committee of the whole considering the appropriation bill.

Amendments to create a rural police force and to abolish the state free employment service by the reduction of the state industrial board, failed to pass.

Senator Albert Baxter, chairman of the finance committee, introduced an amendment providing that before any of the money of the auto theft fund should be turned over to the general fund, state rural police forces should be established and financed. The senate yesterday had defeated a measure providing for such a force.

The greatest increase in the appropriation was made in the governor's emergency contingent fund. It was reduced by the house from $500,000 as recommended by the state budget committee, to $300,000. The senate adopted the budget committee report, recommending making an increase of $200,000.

Other appropriation increases in the bill are personal service in the supreme court, clerk of the supreme court, attorney general, auditor of the state, security commissions, treasurer of state, and the emergency appropriation for the state fire marshal.

The amendment to reduce the membership of the state industrial board from five to three was bitterly opposed. Senator Richards, however, said such action would result in a saving of $30,000 annually. It was finally voted down.

Eighteen measures failed to pass in the house when committee reports recommending indefinite postponement were adopted. They include:

Repealing the absent voters law which was passed by the senate.

Repeal the law which provides for teaching of vocations in state schools.

Providing for the regulations of school government in Fort Wayne and other cities with 86,000 to 100,000 population.

Providing for the reorganization of the state board of education.

The house also killed five proposed constitutional amendments. They provided for impeachment of business officials, changes in the provisions for change of venue, elimination of the provision for unanimous vote in jury verdict, that no elective officer should succeed himself, and that the governor may veto separate items in appropriation bills.

Withdrawal of a proposed house measure which would require county commissioner to give members of

HIGH SCHOOLS INSPECTED

Five Visited by Assistant Inspector and County Superintendent

Several high schools in Rush county were inspected Monday by W. E. Wagoner of this city, who is now assistant state school inspector, and by B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent. The high schools visited were New Salem, Moscow, Milroy, Homer and Manilla.

All of them were found to be in good condition, and New Salem was regarded as being of an exceptionally high standard, and may be recommended for a continuing commission. It also was intimated that the other schools visited would have their commission renewed. The remainder of the high schools in the county will be inspected on March 5.

Lona Chowning of Posey Township Files Petition in Court to Have Wedding Set Aside

FIRST WIFE IS LIVING

Petitioner Says Albert R. Chowning Misrepresented Himself to Her Before Marriage

Lona Chowning, a resident of Posey township, has filed a petition in the circuit court, asking that her marriage to Halbert R. Chowning, alias Albert R. Chowning, be annulled, and two other complaints have been docketed for trial.

The petitioner alleges that she and the defendant were married October 7, 1920 at Richmond, Ind., and that he represented to her that he was single, but after they were married, his former wife, who she said was thought to have been dead, appeared on the scene.

Mrs. Chowning also alleges that when they were married he gave his name as Albert Chowning, while in fact and truth, his correct name was Halbert Chowning. For these two reasons, she asks that her marriage to him be set aside.

Betram L. Wilson, doing business under the firm name of E. E. Holloway Company, Indianapolis, has filed a suit against Elmer C. Addison, doing business at Arlington under the firm name of Mack Addison, the complaint being on an account and with the demand for $300 judgment.

In the third suit filed today, Frank A. Wright, representing the firm of the Inland Elevator, has brought suit against James Miller of Rushville, the demand being for $800 on an account of a bill of merchandise, which is alleged to be unpaid.

Business matters were quiet today in the court, and only a few minor matters were scheduled to be heard. No cases are scheduled on the court calendar for Wednesday or Thursday.

THOMAS E. GLASS IS DEAD

Former Rush County Man Expires At Lincoln, Nebraska

Relatives here have received word of the death of Thomas E. Glass at his home in Lincoln, Nebraska, which occurred two weeks ago, following an illness of a complication of diseases. Mr. Glass formerly lived in this city and when a young man went to Lincoln. He never returned here until two years ago, when he came for a visit with relatives and friends.

The deceased formerly was a school teacher in this city, and when the reunion of the teachers and pupils of the Frog Pond school was held last year, he prepared a paper on the history of the school, which was read at the celebration. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Jessie who lives in Lincoln and three nieces, living in this city, Mrs. Owen L. Carr, Mrs. Blanche Alsmann and Miss Flora Williams.

ANNA KIRK DIES

Miss Anna Kirk, aged seventy-five years, expired at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Fulton in Glenwood, this morning. Miss Kirk was spending the winter with her sister, her home being in Thorntown, Indiana. She took ill a week ago with the influenza, her condition becoming critical during the past few days. The sister is the only survivor. A short funeral service will be held at the home of Mrs. Fulton in Glenwood Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock and the body will be taken to her home in Thorntown where the regular funeral services will be held Thursday and interment will take place in the Frankfort cemetery.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL

All members of the K. of P. Lodge are urged to attend the funeral services of John M. Hittle to be held at the Fairview church at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The burial will take place in the East Hill cemetery.

TWO CIVIL SUITS ARE FILED

One to Replevin Household Goods and Other is For Possession

Two civil suits have been placed on file in Justice Stech's court. One was filed by Nettie Jones against Gertrude Fultz and Harry Jones, the complaint being to replevin a stove and other articles, valued at $25, and the plaintiffs seek an extra $10 for damages for their retention. The case will be heard February 23 at 10 o'clock.

The other complaint was filed by Mrs. Ida Cartmell against Walter Meredith, the case being for possession of a store room at Seventh and Arthur streets, and for $50 judgment. The case will be heard Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

ANNILERSARY OF CLUB CELEBRATED

"Citizenship" is Topic of Short Talks by Rotarians at Birthday Observance Today

GROWTH OF ORGANIZATION

Less Law Enforcement and More Law Observance is Greatest Need, Judge Sparks Says

The eighteenth anniversary of the founding of Rotary was celebrated at the regular meeting of the Rushville club today noon at the Social club with a program on "Citizenship," which was combined with observance of Washington's birthday anniversary.

The meeting opened with the singing of "America" by the members of the club and President Warder Wyatt spoke briefly of the traits of George Washington that had lived and had been set up as ideals for American citizenship today.

Special musical numbers were provided by Mrs. George Hogsett and Miss Charlotte Norris, the latter singing two selections.

A short talk by the president on the anniversary of the founding of Rotary in Chicago by Paul Harris in 1905 led up to a series of four-minute talks by Rotarians.

J. H. Scholl, in discussing "Citizenship and The Schools," paid a tribute to teachers, asserting that their influence for better things, their inspiration for higher ideals were the greatest contributing forces for good citizenship.

"What we need today is less law enforcement and more law observance," said Judge Will Sparks, in speaking on "Citizenship and The Courts."

"The more of the latter we have the less of the former will we need. Some men obey the laws because they love their country and the old flag and all it stands for. Others obey cherry tree story did not represent the laws through fear."

Judge Sparks asserted that the George Washington because the evidence was all against him and he had no chance to deny it. That's the kind of truth the court has to deal with, the judge said. Judge Sparks said he did not mean to intimate that George Washington was not a good citizen, but cited the cherry tree story as an example of evidence that often comes into court.

WILLIAM PRIEST EXPIRES

Orange Township Farmer Succumbs to Influenza and Heart Trouble

William Priest, aged fifty-four years, died at his home one and one half miles east of Gowdy this morning at one o'clock, following a week's illness of influenza and heart trouble. The deceased was a member of the Red Men's Lodge of this city and is survived by one brother, Joe, who resided with his brother.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at the late residence in charge of the Rev. J. T. Scull and burial will take place in the East Hill cemetery, this city.

SHIP BILL FIGHT ENDURANCE TEST

Filibuster In Full Swing In Senate With Victory As The Prize Of Physical Stamina

BURDEN IS ON OPPONENTS

Subsidy Group Takes Things Easy While Filibusters Must Be Constantly On Watch

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 20.—Now an open and admitted filibuster, the fight on the ship subsidy today settled into an endurance contest with victory the prize of physical stamina.

Administration forces, who have repeatedly demonstrated that they control the votes to pass the subsidy if it is permitted to come to a vote, had put up on the bill's enemies the burden of the battle.

Senator Jones and his subsidy group were in position today to take things easy while the anti-subsidy filibuster were forced to constant vigilance.

After a long session well into last night, Jones recessed until 11 a. m. today with the announcement that unless the filibuster ceased he would keep the senate in continuous session day and night, driving the little handful of filibusters to the limit of their physical endurance.

If Jones goes through with that program he may be able to break the filibuster, but it will be at the cost of votes for the bill.

Jones constant threats, none of which he has as yet carried out, have somewhat angered senators, now nervous and touchy as the regular end-of-session jam comes on. The unprecedented position taken by Senator Underwood, Democratic leader, also has strengthened the anti-subsidy forces by creating resentment among the Democrats.

Underwood, by urging that there be no filibuster, and that the will of the majority be allowed to prevail, so angered some of his colleagues that they openly began to talk against him.

SAFE IN COLUMBUS POSTOFFICE ROBBED

Yeggmens Escape With Between $4,000 and $5,000 in Cash and Revenue Stamps Early Today

BLOODHOUNDS TAKE UP TRAIL

Columbus, Ind., Feb. 20.—Yeggs blew the safe of the Columbus postoffice early today and escaped with between $4,000 and $5,000 in cash and revenue stamps.

Bloodhounds were rushed here from Bedford in an effort to trace the robbers. It is believed however they were in a speeding automobile seen going west out of Columbus shortly after the robbery is thought to have been committed.

An acetylene tank and a piece of canvas used to muffle the nitroglycerine explosion were left beside the shattered safe and they furnish the only clue.

Employees of the office were at work until one o'clock and the explosion occurred between then and six o'clock, when Joe Johnson, the custodian, discovered it.

This was the second attempt to rob the office within a year. The first was unsuccessful.

E. C. Laughlin, postoffice inspector, lives half a block away.

COUNTY ASSESSORS MEET

Assessors of seven of the counties in this district gathered here today for a conference, at the office of Earl Priest county assessor for Rush and Walter Bridges of Greenfield, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners was here giving advice to the assessors. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the spring assessment of personal property which will begin March 1.

THREE VARIETIES BEST IN INDIANA

Selected Early Ohios and Irish Cobblers Given Preference for Early Planting Here

RURAL NEW YORKERS FOR LATE

Withstand Hot Dry Weather and Still Produce a Crop When all Other Varieties Fail

From north to south, anywhere and everywhere growers are reporting unusual success with selected Early Ohios and Irish Cobblers for early planting and Rural New Yorkers for late. Of course, there are dozens of varieties in this county but there are only a few best varieties and they are Cobblers, Ohios, and Rurals. Cobblers seem to do best on the lighter sandy soils while Ohios prefer a heavier loam soil, but both insist on having plenty of plant food and moisture to produce a big yield.

For late plantings, yields from Rurals of from 300 to 425 bushels per acre have been recorded along the Ohio river and up to the Michigan border. Rurals are the universal late variety for this section as they withstand hot dry weather and still produce a crop when other varieties fail. In extreme southern Indiana "Bull Moose", a long season late potato, is commonly grown. If you have had unfavorable results from any of these reliable varieties lay it to a poor strain or something else besides the variety.

Most of the potatoes grown in the state are badly diseased if they have been grown here any length of time. For this reason they usually produce poor yields. Certified seed has produced an average of 58 bushels more potatoes than the average farm potato seed when both were planted side by side. This wide difference in favor of certified seed is largely due to the fact that it is grown for seed purposes, is of a good strain and comparatively free from disease.

Certified seed is potato seed that has been grown for seed purposes only, seed that is comparatively free from disease and vigorous and true to variety name. To insure that the planter gets certified seed, every bag of it bears the official tag of certification. This bears the name of grower, address, variety name, and the state in which the seed was grown along with the words "Certified" or "Inspected" seed. Along with all this goes some information on the card of the guarantee back of the seed. So if you are buying certified seed and its the best seed obtainable, insist on seeing the "Tag on the Bag." Such seed means an increase in yields and a start on the trail for profitable potato yields.

Certified seed on 10,000 farms in 78 counties in Indiana averaged 36 bushels more potatoes per acre than the common seed planted along side of it, according to report just issued by F. C. Gaylord, of Purdue University, who has charge of potato improvement work in the state.

A striking example, illustrative of thousands of others is that of Horace F. Wickard, a Hancock county farmer who reports, "Certified seed potatoes are far better than any other common or native seed here. Our yield was 33 bushels on 1/11 of an acre, this being about 298 bushels per acre. These potatoes were of fine quality."

"Farmers who want the old potato patch to come back and produce a real crop of potatoes should buy certified Early Ohios or Irish Cobblers for early plantings and Rural New Yorkers for late. This seed has doubled the yield in farm patches over the state," said Mr. Gaylord.

On account of the very low price of certified seed which is as low or lower than common kinds, farmers should get their orders in early as the demand will be heavy. Growers who are interested should communicate with their local county agent, who can tell them where to obtain this real seed stock, or with F. C. Gaylord, Purdue University.

WARNING!

Never allow a cold to drift down into your chest and lungs. The danger is positively too great. Should you contract a cold or feel bad see your druggist at once and get a box of Bulgarian Herb Tea. Take a cupful hot at bedtime—add lemon juice. Hot medicinal Herb Tea helps to stimulate the circulation, heat up the chilled blood and flush the waste poisons from the clogged bowels.

TRAIN WOMEN FOR DEMONSTRATIONS

Purdue Home Economics Extension Workers Plan to Increase Value of Work Many Fold

TO BE HELD AT COUNTY SEAT

Local Leaders Will Be Asked to Attend All Day Training School For Instruction

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 20—To meet the many demands for assistance from the 1971 townships in Indiana, the home economics division of the Purdue University extension department has worked out a plan by which local leaders from the various townships will meet at the county seat, attend an all day training school conducted by a member of the university staff, and then return to their respective communities and present the work to their friends and neighbors. This plan is expected to multiply manifold the value of the extension work being done for Indiana women, especially those on the farm, although thousands in the towns and cities also are taking advantage of it.

Four principal projects to be presented to the women in the counties, which are designed to aid the Indiana home improvement campaign are as follows: running water in the home; nutrition; clothing and millinery. After the women of the county have been called together, and the needs of their respective communities discussed, a county-wide program is agreed upon, county adopting but one project. A leader and an assistant will be selected from each township to attend the training school to be conducted by the university specialist.

Counties adopting the nutrition project will have one meeting each quarter throughout the year. The work will cover a food survey, a greater use of bread made from the Indiana grown wheat, canning of fruits, vegetables and meats, keeping good household accounts and the hot school lunch.

Counties adopting the clothing work will have assistance one day for four consecutive months assistance in selecting ready made garments taking measurements, alterations of patterns, and the making of a house dress, with a lesson on color, line, fitting and finishes. This makes this project most beneficial to women doing their own sewing. At the end of the project a county-wide meeting will be held and every woman who has completed the course will be present. The garments will be exhibited by townships. Such an exhibit is valuable in that women learn to know one another better, have the opportunity of seeing many garments which show individuality, as well as demonstrate good color combination and short cuts in sewing.

Two days will be required for the millinery project. A leader and assistant from each township will be given instructions on the selection of frame, colors, etc. The fundamentals in covering brims and various types of crowns, and some work on selecting trimmings, which will enable the woman to make, not a seasonal hat, but to make her own hats, will be given. Later two or more township leaders will be trained in putting on a township demonstration. Leaders and assistants in attendance will then present these demonstrations to the local women as they go back home.

The dress form work proved that local leaders were most efficient and that many women were reached that could not have been assisted otherwise.

Many requests for countrywide projects are being received by the Extension Department although work on home projects will not be started till March 1.

CHICKEN AND EGG VALUES WERE LOWER LAST YEAR

The combined farm value of chickens raised and eggs produced in 1922 is estimated at $854,207,000, by the United States Department of Agriculture. The value in 1921 was $900,820,000.

About 543,000,000 chickens were raised on farms in 1922, with a farm value of $354,199,000, as compared with 510,000,000 chickens raised in 1921 valued at $362,253,000. Egg production totaled 1,962,356,000 dozen eggs of a value of $500,008,000, as compared with 1,837,486,000 dozen eggs with a value of $538,567,000 in 1921.

Of the chicken eggs produced in 1922, large quantities were consumed in industries in the manufacture of other than food products, and about 113,000,000 dozen were used to produce chickens, the department says.

The average farm price of chickens raised in 1922 was 65¢ per fowl, compared with 71¢ in 1921, and with 86¢ in 1920. The average farm price of chicken eggs was 25.5¢ a dozen in 1922, compared with 29.3¢ per dozen in 1921 and with 44.4¢ in 1920.

It is estimated that there were 412,000,000 chickens on farms January 1, 1922, a time of year when the number of chicks is low. There were 386,000,000 chickens on farms January 1, 1921, and on January 1, 1920, there were 360,000,000, according to census figures.

Fifty Thouand Women

would comprise a vast army, yet that is the number who have replied to a questionnaire recently sent out by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn, Mass. Ninety-eight out of every 100 letters from these women contained positive assurances that they have been benefited or restored to health by taking this old-fashioned root and herb medicine. This is most remarkable evidence of its power over the ills of women. Therefore, with 98 chances out of one hundred that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will overcome such ailments for you, why should you continue to go through life in pain and suffering?

A HUDSON SEDAN

"To those unacquainted with manufacturing problems, it is remarkable to note the manner in which a large production of a certain article can reduce its price. As this is a matter which should interest all automobile buyers, a concrete example will not be out of place here.

"Biddle & Smart, at Amesbury, Mass., make bodies exclusively for Hudson". They are one of the oldest and best known body manufacturers in the United States and their product is everywhere recognized for the highest quality, workmanship and design. They are now concentrating their entire efforts on the new Hudson Sedan.

"Their establishment is located in Amesbury, a small city in the Merrimack valley of Massachusetts. It is the important industry of the town. For many years the most skilled artisans of the vicinity have found employment there. Horse drawn coaches and carriages of the highest type were its product for many years. After the New England manner, fathers worked at their trade all their lives there, and then saw their sons begin their apprenticeships.

"The products today are practically custom-built. Into them go the individuality and the skill of the workmen. The aluminum panels are hand shaped to the framework. The decorative moldings are rolled in. The word craftsmen has been much over-used of late; but the men at Biddle & Smart deserve the term, for they are masters of the craft of carriage building.

"The present Hudson Sedan is a possibility at its present price because of an exceptionally advantageous arrangement made by Hudson with Biddle & Smart. The entire working force is now devoted exclusively to the building of this one type of body. And thus without in any way letting down on the materials or grade of workmanship, Biddle & Smart is able to produce at a hitherto impossible low price. In this Biddle & Smart sedan, Hudson has one of the very finest and most aristocratic enclosed cars in motordom.

"When prices are not told beforehand, buyers generally think the Sedan is actually several hundred dollars above the actual figures."

Prosperity

The anvil chorus is giving way to the united voice of prosperity. Those who have been seeing nothing but disaster have been drowned out by the onstep of better conditions.

The commercial pages of the newspapers tell the story as nothing else can. One of the prime factors in the return of business to its natural high estate in the affairs of men in the United States is the improvement in farming.

Prices of all the principal farm products have increased over a year ago. At the end of 1922 corn was worth 50 percent more than a year before, cotton had increased nearly 50 percent, wheat 10 percent, wool 70 percent. The aggregate increase in the value of farm crops in 1922 over 1921 is estimated at $3,000,000,000.

With a steadily increasing export trade, and a materially improved situation in our foreign relations as a result of the adjustment of the most important of our foreign loans, the outlook for foreign commerce during the present year is all that could be desired. The improvement in foreign exchange values, the lessened danger of foreign controversies, the promotion of peace in the western hemisphere, the reduction of federal expenditures, all confirm the evidence of our domestic situation that we are well started on an era of industrial and commercial prosperity.

A resume of the facts in these and other particulars gives an interesting and encouraging picture of the upward swing of industry and trade. At the end of January, 1923, the United States Steel orders aggregated 6,910,000 tons as compared with 4,241,000 tons at the same time one year ago. Pig iron production during the month of December, 1922, amounted to 3,229,000 tons as compared with 1,644,000 tons in the same month a year before, showing an increase of approximately 100 percent.

Bank clearings, which register with approximate accuracy the amount of business in progress, show an increase of about 15 percent thus far in the present calendar year as compared with the corresponding period last year. Money is not only moving more freely, but more of it is being saved by people of small means, as indicated by the fact that savings banks deposits are $1,500,000,000 greater than a year ago. Holder of Victory Bonds on which interest has ceased have been slow in presenting them for payment, thus demonstrating that they are not pressed for money. Repayments of loans to the War Finance Corporation have been prompt and more extensive than many had expected.

In 136 cities for which building statistics are completed by Bradstreets the aggregate value of structures for which permits were issued in January 1923 was $166,162,000 as compared with $121,594,000 in the corresponding month of 1922. From every part of the country reports are received of scarcity of labor in all the building trades, with wages of skilled labor as high as $12 and even $15 a day. There is ready demand for the lumber output.

Rural Police Bill Dead

The state senate showed rare judgment Tuesday afternoon by defeating the rural police bill by a vote of 32 to 14. By this majority the senators voted to postpone the measure indefinitely which means that the bill can not be reconsidered under the rules of the senate.

Senator Robert L. Moorehead, its sponsor, was the only one who could say a good word for the measure. When he had concluded his speech, a dozen senators jumped to their feet, eager to talk against it.

The principal arguments used against the bill were that there was no demand for rural police from the rural communities, that the expense of such a department would be out of proportion to the good done and that the police departments of cities had not shown themselves especially valuable in the detective of criminals.

All that was said against the bill is actually true. The demand for rural police did not come from the farmers or the small towns because they do not feel the need of such an organization. The bulk of the crime is committed in large centers of population. Crime in rural communities is generally traced down because the residents of such communities have a fair knowledge of the people of the community and are prepared to fix responsibility when laws are violated. They always have the co-operation of the police forces of county seat towns, not to mention sheriffs and their deputies in every county, who are peace officers sworn to enforce the law.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican
Thursday, February 20, 1903

O. H. Brady has purchased the C. F. Edgerton & Son furniture store in the Masonic building, and will take possession on or about March 1. Mr. Brady was formerly engaged in the furniture business at Newcastle, but for the past year has been a resident of Indianapolis. He is a hustling, up-to-date furniture man of pleasing manner, good appearance and comes highly recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gleason, of Tipton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krammer, in North Harrison street.

Word comes from Homer Cole of West Second street, who is assisting as singing evangelist in an Ohio meeting that they are having great success.

Miss Bertha Helm entertained at cards about sixty guests this afternoon at her home in West Third street.

Mrs. E. F. VanOsdol entertained the members of the Research Club at her home in North Morgan street this afternoon.

At the social given at the U. P. church parlors last evening by the Ladies Missionary society, the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Clark and wife, were presented with an elegant leather davenport, as a gift from the congregation in appreciation of the services of the new pastor, and his good wife since they have been connected with the local church.

Miss Marie Crosby left yesterday for Detroit, Michigan, to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Martha Menefer of Kentucky is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Hogsett of West Second street.

Misses Sue Gregg and Ada Jones are attending the millinery openings in Chicago.

Miss Katherine Wooden, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. I. Wooden, is ill at the home of her parents in North Morgan street.

Born to the wife of James Mullin, of West Tenth street, a ten pound boy.

Mrs. Jacob Stevens, of West First street, who recently underwent an operation at Cincinnati is not so well.

George H. Putteny, who has been quite ill at his home in West Third street is improving.

For Raw Sore Throat

At the first sign of a raw, sore throat rub on a little Musterole with your fingers.

It goes right to the spot with a gentle tingle, loosens congestion, draws out soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It has all the strength of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 35 and 65 cents in jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.

COLLEGE WRESTLING GETS TOO LADY-LIKE

Criticism Was Struck At Popular
Sport In Big Ten Conference By
Prof. Elmer E. Jones

RULES ELIMINATE SKILL

Chicago, Feb. 20.—College wrestling is getting too lady-like for the athlete, and is now just plain setting up and rolling around exercise for the campus tea hounds.

This criticism was struck at wrestling in the big ten conference today by Professor Elmer E. Jones, director of the school of education at Northwestern University and former wrestling coach of Indiana.

"Big ten wrestling bouts have degenerated to pink tea affairs," declared Jones. "The rules are such that all the science and skill has been eliminated, and the interest in the match made negligible for the spectator."

Jones said the rule which provided a contestant must have an advantage of one minute in time behind his opponent made the match a mere riding contest, the man who rides the other fellow longest winning the decision.

Chicago. —Manager Bill Killifer left with the advance guard of Cubs for training quarters at Catalina Island today. Nine athletes, one coach and one trainer were in the squad.

Hittin' 'Em & Missin' 'Em

If Anderson is playing in a slump these days, which tradition says they are doing, it would be high time for Rushville to spring that big surprise on Coach Stagg's team Friday night.

Elwood has been going too good this season to be true. Why not play 'em off their feet Saturday night, gang, and end the season with a bang.

OUR GUESS TONIGHT
Garfield of Terre Haute clashes with Vincennes tonight. Our dope on that game will be about a 47 to 25 score, in favor of the Alicetown team.

WATCH FRANKLIN, FOLKS
Franklin has got started again, and we're thinkin' that they are going to be a hard bunch to stop at the state meet this year.

If you high school players would remember to follow in your shots, and keep an accurate eye on the goal, you could win almost any game. We'd practice a little harder on those foul goals, because many a game hinges on the one or two points from fouls.

Robinson, Connorsville center, had an off night last Saturday when Mencie drubbed them. Here's hoping that Robinson and Flannigan each have off nights when they play over here.

WE'D LIKE TO LIVE THERE OURSELVES, TEAM

Deryl Case, senior in high school, has announced that all Rushville players will be taken care of at his home, Sixth and Main street, during the sectional tourney. All of the squad will eat and sleep there, and will be under the constant attention of the coach.

If Rushville loses their first game, we'd kick 'em out of the house, Deryl.

NO DANGER, YOU WON'T LOOK THROUGH ANY GLASS

Dear Hittin' 'Em—You printed a letter the other day from a Loyal Fan, who said he didn't see why the bandstand wasn't moved so he could see the games. You tell that fellow that there has been plenty of seats all season some place else. Besides us fellows in the band want to have good seats. We don't want to look through glass banking boards at any basketball game.

Yours,
A BAND BOY,

WE DIDN'T HEAR OF IT
Dear Hittin' 'em—"Did the Webb basketball team play any place last Friday night? We didn't see any mention of it."

"Inquisitive Fan"
WE CAN'T ANSWER THIS EITHER:

Mr. Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em—Did the Moscow team ever get back home from the Cincinnati tourney? You didn't say anything about it in your column.

"Inquisitive Fan 2"
GO GET 'EM COLTS

Stevie and his Colts are getting real cocky now for sure. Not being satisfied with playing a double header last Friday and winning both of 'em, they will tackle the Arlington high school's first team Friday night at Arlington, while Rushville is playing Anderson. This is a big game for the Colts, and we fear for 'em, but just the same we wish 'em all kinds of luck. Rushville fans who can't go to Anderson, ought to take a night off and follow the Colts over to Arlington.

THEY DESERVE SWEATERS ALSO

Then on the other hand, it's a funny thing why the members of the second team don't get in on those sweaters. Members of the first team are awarded fine sweaters for their service, but the second team gets only experience. Why don't you fans get together and stage a game between the Colts and the first team, and turn over the evening's profits for sweaters for the second team.

IF IT WASN'T FOR THE SECOND TEAM THIS YEAR, THE CROWDS WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN ONE-HALF. PEOPLE LIKE TO SEE ONE TEAM WIN GAMES, AT ANY RATE.

Looks Bad for 1924 Olympics

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Feb. 20.—America's chances for another victory in the 1924 Olympics at Paris are none too bright. While several of the European nations have improved since 1920, the United States not only has not kept abreast, but has fallen behind a little in development.

American officials came back from Antwerp games three years ago convinced that something would have to be done to develop some distance runners, but nothing has been done. At the present time it even looks like the American runners will make a poorer showing in the events above the quarter mile than they did in 1920.

Sweden, developing most rapidly in every department of track and in-field sports, probably will give America the most opposition. The Swedes will win a lot of points and they will be helped by some of the smaller nations who will cut further into the United States.

If the Swedes develop some good sprinters and some weight men, they will have a great chance to win the championship.

America's team will be a veteran outfit as, with very few exceptions, no athletes have been developed since 1920 good enough to make the team. Gourdin, the world's champion broad jumper; LeConey and McAlister, the sprinters; Brown, the Dartmouth high jumper, and Hellfrich, the middle distance runner, are about the only ones that may make the team who didn't go to Antwerp.

Only six athletes on the 1920 team had had previous Olympic experience—Dan Ahearn, Pat McDonald, Ted Meredith and Murray, Pat Ryan and Matt McGrath.

With the exception of Meredith and Murray, they will also be on the next team probably and with them as veterans will be Tom Campbell, Jimmy Connolly, Sol Butler, Mike Devaney, Jake Driscoll, Earl Johnson, Bob LeGendre, Jack Merchant, Brick Muller, Loren Murchinson, Charley Paddock, Joie Ray, Johnny Murphy, Willie Plant, Allen Woodring, Ray Watson and Frank Zana.

FIGHT RESULTS

Newark, N. J.—Charley Weinert, Newark heavy weight knocked out George K. Brown, Chicago in the first round.

Washington Court House, Ohio—Tut Jackson, Washington Court House colored heavyweight won a 12 round decision from Jamaica Kid, New York.

Basketball Scores

Wisconsin 16; Michigan 11.
Illinois 27; Minnesota 18.
Wabash 26; Notre Dame 21.
Bradley 25; Milliken 23.

A TAME EXHIBITION

Detroit, Feb. 20.—Jess Willard disappointed a packed house here last night in a tame four round exhibition with Harry Drake of London. The former champion refused to strip down to the customary boxing tight, appearing in full length trunks. His only ambition while in the ring, it seemed, was to keep Drake at a distance, which he did without much trouble.

LOCAL TEAM IS DEFEATED

New Salem Youngsters Win Game
From Cubs, 29 to 28

The Rushville Cubs, a juvenile team, was defeated by the New Salem team Monday night by the close score of 29 to 28, in a game that was hard fought. The local youngsters were in the lead 19 to 14 at the first half, but weakened in the final period of play. Perkins starred for the losers while Wilson went best for New Salem.

The Rushville team lined-up with Perkins and Weakley at forwards; Mitchell at center; Caldwell and Cherry guards. New Salem with Grinstead and Wilson, forwards; Crawley, center; Emsweller and Stiers, guards. Field goals, Perkins 9, Mitchell 3, Caldwell, Grinstead, 2, Wilson 2, Crawley, 3, Wilson 7. Foul goals, Cherry 2 out of 3, Wilson 1 out of 4.

Eye-Witness Stories Of Slaying Of Labor Leader In Chicago

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Eye-witnesses told different versions today of the slaying of Steven Kelleher by "Dapper Dan" McCarthy in a gun duel in a crowded cabaret here. Both men were prominent in labor circles.

Several witnesses said McCarthy shot in self-defense after Kelleher had fired twice. Others declared McCarthy was the aggressor throughout.

McCarthy was held in jail pending the inquest which will be held Friday. He blamed the tragedy on Mrs. Kelleher, with whom he quarreled shortly before the killing.

Pythian DANCE For K of P's and Families and Invited Guests THURSDAY Night Feb. 22

Good Music A Good Time

The choir of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church will hold a rehearsal tonight at seven o'clock at the church. A good attendance is desired.

The Regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters will be held Wednesday evening at the K. of P. hall. The degree captain wants every member of the team present for practice.

Mrs. Ed Pitman entertained the Tuesday Evening Bridge club Monday evening at her home in North Morgan street. The ladies enjoyed the evening over the card tables and the hostess served light refreshments.

The Loyal Daughters of the Main Street Christian church will meet at the home of the class president, Mrs. Ben Sparks, in North Perkins street, tonight. Mrs. Albert Allen and Miss Frances McMahon will be the assisting hostesses.

Mrs. J. C. Craig will entertain the members of the Industrial club Wednesday afternoon at her home, 223 East Eighth street. The meeting will be called at two o'clock and all the members are requested to come prepared to work on quilt blocks.

Mrs. Helen Pierson's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. W. Weakley in North Harrison street tonight. It will be the regular meeting and all members of the class are urged to be present.

The Pythian Sisters have arranged to give another dance Thursday evening at the K. of P. hall in West Second street. The McGinnis orchestra of this city will furnish the music for the dancers. A good time is anticipated at this dance and all Pythian sisters, their families and members of the K. of P. and invited guests are expected to attend.

Officers were elected at the regular meeting of the Tri Kappa sorority held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. O. Frazee in North Harrison street, her daughter, Mrs. Paul Newhouse, being the hostess. The officers elected will be installed at the next meeting of the sorority. Plans for the program on March 5, at which time Mrs. Demareus Brown of Indianapolis was to lecture, have been changed on account of the ladies night of the Knights Templar on that date. Arrangements are to be made to have Mrs. Brown on some other night, if convenient with her. At the close of the meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Industries," Lee Endreess said that evil forces are endeavoring to undo work that has already been done towards bringing employer and employee together, but that the people of America were awakened to the danger and were combating it. He declared that the employer should take the initiative in bringing about closer relations with their employees and outlined methods of accomplishing the desired end.

John A. Tittsworth, in a brief talk on "Citizenship and the State of Indiana," asserted that the problem is not so great in rural communities such as this as in the larger industrial centers of the state. He described conditions where the population is largely foreign and told of methods being followed to raise the standard of citizenship.

THE HOME GARDEN

What is Home without a Garden?

Color arrangement is how regarded as most important in ornamental gardening and is enlisting the most careful study. A gardener for the most part should be guided by his own taste and use the colors which he particularly admires. If he prefers blue and purple to scarlet, orange and yellow, he should plan a garden in which his favorites would be the prevailing tones with touches of contrasting and harmonizing colors to emphasize and relieve the blue and purple.

Pale yellows and pinks used with blues of the lighter shades, and orange used in contrast with lavenders and purples, make admirable combinations.

The orange African marigolds planted with ageratum make a picture to remember. The ageratum also is excellent with the velvety orange, maroon and mahogany shades of the French marigolds.

As a general rule, in planning for color effect one may start at one end with the true blues, then use pink and rose shades, then yellows shading into orange, then the scarlets and deeper shades, then a little more orange and the lavenders and purples with relief plantings of some white annual; finally not too great a mass of white should be used. Plant it rather sparingly throughout the border as it attracts attention from other coloring when used too freely and at a distance gives a spotty effect.

Beautiful color plantings may be worked out in the various kinds of annuals.

An aster planting may begin with the deep purples, following with the deep lavenders, the rose pinks, lighter lavenders, flesh colors, then the darker rose colors and deepest toned reds.

Snappedragons may be planted in various unusual shades of yellow and buff, fawn, orange and scarlet to deep crimsons.

In all color schemes a sizable group of a single color gives by far a finer effect than can be secured from mixed plantings.

Zinnias in masses of brilliant scarlet, the wonderful burnt oranges, the delicate new pink shades, and creams and yellows make particularly gorgeous plantings.

tations be not based upon the pan-Germans' formula because we know that to be a catastrophic policy, conceivably capable of immeasurable damage to Germany."

He pointed out that prohibition did not make much headway as long as it was handled by moralists, but when business men were awakened to its economic value, they readily got behind it.

"Rotary's aim," he continued, in giving statistics on the growth of the organization and its spread into 37 countries, "is not to populate the earth, but here and there a group is banded together for the purpose of practicing unselfish service."

The program closed with a discussion of "Citizenship and the Home" by John M. Walker. He said the real problem is the home in the United States and expressed the doubt if any fundamental institution is being attacked like the home.

"It must be defended against its friends," he asserted, pleading for a return of the old-fashioned family life where the deepest note in the home life is the recognition of the Creator of all things and the family prayer.

Announcement of Indianapolis Rotary Club Subscription Made

Indianapolis, Feb. 20—Announcement that members of the Indianapolis Rotary Club have subscribed $80,495 to the building fund of the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children, now under construction here, was made at the club meeting today.

With the announcement, a movement was started for the raising of a special memorial fund of several hundred thousand dollars among all Rotary clubs of the state. Kiwanis clubs are now raising a fund of $150,000 for construction of one of the ward buildings of the hospital.

Walter E. Pittsford, former district governor of Rotary, Arthur E. Baxter and Frank E. Floyd, widely known among Rotarians of Indiana were in charge of the Indianapolis campaign for the hospital.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 16.

A gift is not taxable income to the person receiving it, nor may it be deducted from gross income by the person giving it. For purpose of the income-tax law a gift may be defined as "voluntary transfer of property, real or personal, including money, without a recompense or consideration."

While the value of property received as a gift is not taxable, income from such property is subject to the tax for the year in which received. For example, a person who inherits a piece of property, should not include in his return the value of such property, but must report the rent therefrom as income.

It, however, a decedent leaves by will a legacy to a friend or relative for services rendered the bequest is considered income because there is a "consideration."

Where an executor receives a bequest conditioned upon the continuance of his duties as executor, such bequest is deemed to be compensation for his services and is taxable income to the executor.

Pensions paid employees in consideration of former services are not gifts, and must be included as income.

A tip for a personal service is not a gift, and must be reported as income by the recipient. Waiters, porters and others serving the public are advised to keep careful account of such donations.

A fee received by a clergyman for officiating at a wedding or funeral is to be returned as income, because it is compensation for services.

If a debt is forgiven without consideration, it can not be deducted because it then becomes a gift. Deductions claimed for bad debts on account of loans to friends and relatives will be carefully scrutinized for the reason that in many instances such loans are really gifts, the lender having had no expectation of repayment at the time of making the "loan."

Kellogg's Bran is prepared to do one thing—AND DO IT WELL!

Kellogg's Bran will permanently relieve constipation, mild or chronic. It is scientifically prepared for that purpose. It is ALL BRAN, therefore it has the necessary bulk to assure results. Foods with a small bran content cannot afford permanent relief.

When your physician or friends advise you to eat Kellogg's Bran, you follow-on for the purpose of eliminating a dangerous clogging-up and toxic condition of your system. You can't afford to take half-way measures! Think of the lost time and the dangers of illness you are daily dodging!

What you must have is real bran—KELLOGG'S BRAN, and if you will eat it regularly each day you will become a different person within a week or so. Kellogg's Bran, with its natural bulk, sweeps, cleanses and purifies. It not only gives relief, but it regulates the bowels. Every member of your family should eat it—every day—at least two tablespoonfuls; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Try Kellogg's Bran mixed with a hot cereal, or cook it with hot cereals, adding two tablespoonfuls of Bran for each person. Other popular ways are to sprinkle Kellogg's Bran on hot or cold cereals or to eat it as a cereal with hot milk. You can make delicious bakery products with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes on every package.

Kellogg's Bran is not only nationally sold in grocery stores, but can be had in individual packages in first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. Be certain to eat Kellogg's Bran daily for health's sake!

AMUSEMENTS

At The Mystic Today

Wild, rough, snow-covered country where night makes right and men are now slow to use their fists furnishes a striking background for Norman Dawn's stirring picturization of Jack London's famous novel "The Son of the Wolf," which had its initial presentation Monday. It will be seen again today only at the Mystic Theatre.

The story of "The Son of the Wolf" has to do with the adventures of one Scruff Mackenzie, a stout-hearted young man, amid the vast snows of the Northland, and of his love for Chook-Ra, and Indian maid

About these characters has been woven a gripping tale that glows with vitality. Among those in the cast are Edith Roberts, late star of Cecil De Mille's "Saturday Night," Wheeler Oakman, as Scruff, and other favorites of the screen.

A master of out door photography, Mr. Dawson has given us some of the most striking examples of his art in "The Son of the Wolf." Seldom have such gorgeous scenic backgrounds been provided by Mother Nature for a film drama. Mr. Dawson selected the most beautiful spots in the Yosemite Valley, in which to stage his stirring picturization of the London novel and in all of the big snow scenes the grandeur of the towering mountains is marvelously reflected.

Tom Meighan At Princess

Thomas Meighan, perhaps the most popular actor of the screen today, has a delightful role in his new Paramount picture, "Back Home and Broke", which gives impressive evidence of being a strong box-office attraction on its first showing at the Princess theatre last night. It will be seen again today.

This new Meighan vehicle, written especially for the star by George Ade, the humorist, play upon the heart strings with an effect such as only a student of human nature like Mr. Ade could secure. Having for its theme the story of a young man who left home to find success in the west. Mr. Ade has not only vested it with human interest and humor, he has given the story a novel twist. Usually the youth either returns home broke or not at all. One might judge from the title that the hero in this story came home broke, but there's where the surprise comes in.

The picture, directed by Alfred Green, has a clever supporting cast, and is well presented. Lila Lee, one of the best screen actresses, is Mr. Meighan's best woman. The cast includes Charles Abbe, Florence Dixon, Frederick Barton, Eddie Borden and other notable screen players.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MEN END PARLEY

Only Deal Discussed is Mis-Deal as Eddie Collins is Still Member of White Sox

1923 SCHEDULE IS ADOPTED

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—The American League baseball magnates folded their tents today and departed for their home bailiwicks after a successful spring meeting.

The only deal to be talked over was a mis-deal as Eddie Collins is still a member of the Chicago White Sox.

The following was ruled by the moguls:

1—The American League schedule as framed for 1923 was adopted with Washington opening at Philadelphia; Boston at New York; Detroit at St. Louis and Chicago at Cleveland on April 18.

2—Players of the American League shall not be numbered.

3—Home run zones are not to be established.

4—The proposed baseball monument at Washington is to be for all baseball and not an American League monument.

THREE DRAW TERMS IN REFORMATORY

Raymond Foreman, 21, Mier Dunn, 17, And Wayne Chandler, 20, Plead Guilty Of Conspiracy

PASSED FORGED $25 CHECK

Each Fined $25 And Sentenced To Serve From Two-To Fourteen Years—Earl Hall Stays Fine

Three young men, charged with conspiracy, were arraigned this afternoon in the circuit court before Judge Sparks, and each entered pleas of guilty, and received a fine of $25 and a sentence of 2 to 14 years at the state reformatory. The men gave their names as Raymond Foreman, 21, Mier Dunn, 17 and Wayne Chandler, 20.

The trio was arrested late last Friday, it will be recalled, as the result of passing a forged check on John D. Farlow of near Milroy, and cashed at the J. L. Cowing, Son and Company's store for the amount of $25.

The men were charged with conspiring with each other to secure the money by means of fraud and making a payment on an automobile. Foreman also was charged with the forgery, as he was the one who passed the check at the local store.

All three were arraigned at two o'clock this afternoon and admitted their guilt. After a short lecture to them, Judge Sparks passed sentence on them, stating that he was not familiar with them or their previous history to suspend the sentence. The court stated that if they showed a willingness to do better, that he would gladly assist them in getting their freedom from the reformatory at some future date.

Foreman stated that his home was in Morris, south of Greensburg. Dunn said that he was living in New Salem, and formerly lived in Milroy, and Chandler said that he lived near Milroy.

Sheriff Hunt will probably leave in a day or two for the reformatory, where they will begin serving their sentences.

Earl Hall, convicted of unlawful possession of liquor, who went to jail last Saturday from police court on default of the payment of a $100 fine and costs, was released this morning, when provisions was made for him to have his fine stayed. The sentence of 90 days had been suspended by Mayor Thomas.

INSPECTION HELD AT LOCAL ARMORY

OTHER OFFICERS WITH HIM

Company C, 151st Infantry, Indiana National Guard, of this city, was inspected Saturday night by Captain William O. Shrum, United States army inspector, who is stationed at Bowling Green, Ky., with the Kentucky National Guard.

Fifty-four men and three officers were in line when the inspection was held at the company armory in South Perkins street. Captain Shrum and a number of other army officers who are accompanying him on his tour of inspection of National Guard infantry units in Indiana, came here from Shelbyville where a similar inspection was held.

Capt. Shrum was accompanied by Major Albert T. Rich of Indianapolis, D. O. L., senior instructor in the Indiana National Guard; Major Albert H. Whitecomb, of Indianapolis, commanding officer of the first battalion, 151st Indiana Infantry, assigned to the Guard as an instructor; Captain David R. Estill of Shelbyville, D. O. L., infantry instructor; Captain Bush, D. O. L., infantry instructor in the state of Michigan.

BIG FRENCH TROOP MOVEMENT BEGINS

Encircling Movement Indicated Will Add Greatly To Territory Held By The Invaders

SOCIALISTS FAVOR "PEACE"

Insist German Chancellor Not Only Miss No Opportunity To Negotiate For Terms

(By United Press) Berlin, Feb. 20.—A big French troop movement is proceeding in the direction of Darmstadt and Mannheim, according to an official message from Mayence.

Darmstadt is capital of the German state of Hessen, while Mannheim, important industrial center, is in the northern part of Baden. An advance such as described by the Mayence dispatch to Berlin would be in the nature of an encircling movement that would add greatly to the territory occupied since invasion of the Ruhr six weeks ago. The Germans are fearful of French occupation of Mannheim and claimed that invasion of Baden was begun with this in view.

By CARL D. GROAT (U. P. Staff Correspondent) (Copyright, 1923, by United Press) Essen, Feb. 20.—German Socialists are now ready for an "honorable peace" with the French on the basis of payment of "a reasonable reparation."

They not only insist that Chancellor Cuno miss no opportunity to open negotiations but demand he do so immediately.

Unlike the Pan-German, the Socialists are not insisting on the formula: "First take the troops out before negotiations are started."

I have the foregoing information—the most important single development since the Ruhr venture reached a deadlock—from Otto Chrysomanski, secretary of the Essen division of the Socialist Democratic party. The Socialists, with over 100,000 paying members constitute the largest political group here.

The Krupp, and other industrialists, are doing their utmost to keep the workers in line, even going to the extent of offering them shares in the companies for which they work.

Social lines that for ages have separated such families as those of their employees are being broken down in a desperate effort to unite the Krupp and the Thyssens from employer and worker in the Ruhr and prevent socialists and communists from "spilling the beans" at a moment when big business is suffering.

SENATE TACKS ON SEEKS ANNULMENT SUM OF $234,320 OF HER MARRIAGE

Sitting as Committee as Whole, Amendments Increase State Appropriations Are Adopted

ONE ON RURAL POLICE FAILS

Eighteen Measures Fail to Pass in House When Reports to Postpone Indefinitely Pass

(By United Press) Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 20.—Amendments to increase the sixteen million dollar appropriation for the state government by $234,320 were adopted by the state senate today, sitting as a committee of the whole considering the appropriation bill.

Amendments to create a rural police force and to abolish the state free employment service by the reduction of the state industrial board, failed to pass.

Senator Albert Baxter, chairman of the finance committee, introduced an amendment providing that before any of the money of the auto theft fund should be turned over to the general fund, state rural police forces should be established and financed. The senate yesterday had defeated a measure providing for such a force.

The greatest increase in the appropriation was made in the governor's emergency contingent fund. It was reduced by the house from $500,000 as recommended by the state budget committee, to $300,000. The senate adopted the budget committee report, recommending making an increase of $200,000.

Other appropriation increases in the bill are personal service in the supreme court, clerk of the supreme court, attorney general, auditor of the state, security commissions, treasurer of state, and the emergency appropriation for the state fire marshal.

The amendment to reduce the membership of the state industrial board from five to three was bitterly opposed. Senator Richards, however, said such action would result in a saving of $30,000 annually. It was finally voted down.

Eighteen measures failed to pass in the house when committee reports recommending indefinite postponement were adopted. They include:

Repealing the absent voters law which was passed by the senate.

Repeat the law which provides for teaching of vocations in state schools.

Providing for the regulations of school government in Fort Wayne and other cities with 36,000 to 100,000 population.

Providing for the reorganization of the state board of education.

The house also killed five proposed constitutional amendments. They provided for impeachment of business officials, changes in the provisions for change of venue, elimination of the provision for unanimous vote in jury verdict, that no elective officer should succeed himself, and that the governor may veto separate items in appropriation bills.

Withdrawal of a proposed house measure which would require county commissioner to give members of

HIGH SCHOOLS INSPECTED

Five Visited by Assistant Inspector and County Superintendent

Several high schools in Rush county were inspected Monday by W. E. Wagoner of this city, who is now assistant state school inspector, and by B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent. The high schools visited, were New Salem, Moscow, Milroy, Homer and Manilla.

All of them were found to be in good condition, and New Salem was regarded as being of an exceptionally high standard, and may be recommended for a continuing commission. It also was intimated that the other schools visited would have their commission renewed. The remainder of the high schools in the county will be inspected on March 5.

FIRST WIFE IS LIVING

Petitioner Says Albert R. Chowning Misrepresented Himself to Her Before Marriage

Lona Chowning, a resident of Posey township, has filed a petition in the circuit court, asking that her marriage to Halbert R. Chowning, alias Albert R. Chowning, be annulled, and two other complaints have been docketed for trial.

The petitioner alleges that she and the defendant were married October 7, 1920 at Richmond, Ind., and that he represented to her that he was single, but after they were married, his former wife, who she said was thought to have been dead, appeared on the scene.

Mrs. Chowning also alleges that when they were married he gave his name as Albert Chowning, while in fact and truth, his correct name was Halbert Chowning. For these two reasons, she asks that her marriage to him be set aside.

Betram L. Wilson, doing business under the firm name of E. E. Holloway Company, Indianapolis, has filed a suit against Elmer C. Addison, doing business at Arlington under the firm name of Mack Addison, the complaint being on an account and with the demand for $300 judgment.

In the third suit filed today, Frank A. Wright, representing the firm of the Inland Elevator, has brought suit against James Miller of Rushville, the demand being for $800 on account of a bill of merchandise, which is alleged to be unpaid.

Business matters were quiet today in the court, and only a few minor matters were scheduled to be heard. No cases are scheduled on the court calendar for Wednesday or Thursday.

THOMAS E. GLASS IS DEAD

Former Rush County Man Expires At Lincoln, Nebraska

Relatives here have received word of the death of Thomas E. Glass at his home in Lincoln, Nebraska, which occurred two weeks ago, following an illness of a complication of diseases. Mr. Glass formerly lived in this city and when a young man went to Lincoln. He never returned here until two years ago, when he came for a visit with relatives and friends.

The deceased formerly was a school teacher in this city, and when the reunion of the teachers and pupils of the Frog Pond school was held last year, he prepared a paper on the history of the school, which was read at the celebration. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Jessie who lives in Lincoln and three nieces, living in this city, Mrs. Owen L. Carr, Mrs. Blanche Alsmann and Miss Flora Williams.

ANNA KIRK DIES

Miss Anna Kirk, aged seventy-five years, expired at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Fulton in Glenwood, this morning. Miss Kirk was spending the winter with her sister, her home being in Thorntown, Indiana. She took ill a week ago with the influenza, her condition becoming critical during the past few days. The sister is the only survivor. A short funeral service will be held at the home of Mrs. Fulton in Glenwood Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock and the body will be taken to her home in Thorntown where the regular funeral services will be held Thursday and interment will take place in the Frankfort cemetery.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL

All members of the K. of P. Lodge are urged to attend the funeral services of John M. Hittle to be held at the Fairview church at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The burial will take place in the East Hill cemetery.

TWO CIVIL SUITS ARE FILED

One to Replevin Household Goods and Other is For Possession

Two civil suits have been placed on file in Justice Stech's court. One was filed by Nettie Jones against Gertrude Fultz and Harry Jones, the complaint being to replevin a stove and other articles, valued at $25, and the plaintiffs seek an extra $10 for damages for their retention. The case will be heard February 23 at 10 o'clock.

The other complaint was filed by Mrs. Ida Carmell against Walter Meredith, the case being for possession of a store room at Seventh and Arthur streets, and for $50 judgment. The case will be heard Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

ANNILERSARY OF CLUB CELEBRATED

"Citizenship" is Topic of Short Talks by Rotarians at Birthday Observance Today

GROWTH OF ORGANIZATION

Less Law Enforcement and More Law Observance is Greatest Need, Judge Sparks Says

The eighteenth anniversary of the founding of Rotary was celebrated at the regular meeting of the Rushville club today noon at the Social club with a program on "Citizenship," which was combined with observance of Washington's birthday anniversary.

The meeting opened with the singing of "America" by the members of the club and President Warder Wyatt spoke briefly of the traits of George Washington that had lived and had been set up as ideals for American citizenship today.

Special musical numbers were provided by Mrs. George Hogsett and Miss Charlotte Norris, the latter singing two selections.

A short talk by the president on the anniversary of the founding of Rotary in Chicago by Paul Harris in 1905 led up to a series of four-minute talks by Rotarians.

J. H. Scholl, in discussing "Citizenship and The Schools," paid a tribute to teachers, asserting that their influence for better things, their inspiration for higher ideals were the greatest contributing forces for good citizenship.

"What we need today is less law enforcement and more law observance," said Judge Will Sparks, in speaking on "Citizenship and the Courts."

"The more of the latter we have the less of the former will we need. Some men obey the laws because they love their country and the old flag and all it stands for. Others obey cherry tree story did not represent the laws through fear."

Judge Sparks asserted that the George Washington because the evidence was all against him and he had no chance to deny it. That's the kind of truth the court has to deal with, the judge said. Judge Sparks said he did not mean to intimate that George Washington was not a good citizen, but cited the cherry tree story as an example of evidence that often comes into court.

In a talk on "Citizenship and the

WILLIAM PRIEST EXPIRES

Orange Township Farmer Succumbs to Influenza and Heart Trouble

William Priest, aged fifty-four years, died at his home one and one half miles east of Gowdy this morning at one o'clock, following a week's illness of influenza and heart trouble. The deceased was a member of the Red Men's Lodge of this city and is survived by one brother, Joe, who resided with his brother.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at the late residence in charge of the Rev. J. T. Scull and burial will take place in the East Hill cemetery, this city.

SHIP BILL FIGHT ENDURANCE TEST

Filibuster in Full Swing in Senate With Victory As The Prize Of Physical Stamina

BURDEN IS ON OPPONENTS

Subsidy Group Takes Things Easy While Filibusters Must Be Constantly On Watch

By LAWRENCE MARTIN (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 20.—Now an open and admitted filibuster, the fight on the ship subsidy today settled into an endurance contest with victory the prize of physical stamina.

Administration forces, who have repeatedly demonstrated that they control the votes to pass the subsidy bill, it is permitted to come to a vote, had put up on the bill's enemies the burden of the battle.

Senator Jones and his subsidy group were in position today to take things easy while the anti-subsidy filibuster were forced to constant vigilance.

After a long session well into last night, Jones recessed until 11 a. m. today with the announcement that unless the filibuster ceased he would keep the senate in continuous session day and night, driving the little handful of filibusters to the limit of their physical endurance.

If Jones goes through with that program he may be able to break the filibuster, but it will be at the cost of votes for the bill.

Jones constant threats, none of which he has as yet carried out, have somewhat angered senators, now nervous and touchy as the regular end-of-session jam comes on. The unprecedented position taken by Senator Underwood, Democratic leader, also has strengthened the anti-subsidy forces by creating resentment among the Democrats.

Underwood, by urging that there be no filibuster, and that the will of the majority be allowed to prevail, so angered some of his colleagues that they openly began to talk against him.

SAFE IN COLUMBUS POSTOFFICE ROBBED

Yeggmen Escape With Between $4,000 and $5,000 in Cash and Revenue Stamps Early Today

BLOODHOUNDS TAKE UP TRAIL

Columbus, Ind., Feb. 20.—Yeggmen blew the safe of the Columbus postoffice early today and escaped with between $4,000 and $5,000 in cash and revenue stamps.

Bloodhounds were rushed here from Bedford in an effort to trace the robbers. It is believed however they were in a speeding automobile seen going west out of Columbus shortly after the robbery is thought to have been committed.

An acetylene tank and a piece of canvas used to muffle the nitroglycerine explosion were left beside the shattered safe and they furnish the only clue.

Employees of the office were at work until one o'clock and the explosion occurred between then and six o'clock, when Joe Johnson, the custodian, discovered it.

This was the second attempt to rob the office within a year. The first was unsuccessful.

E. C. Laughlin, postoffice inspector, lives half a block away.

COUNTY ASSESSORS MEET

Assessors of seven of the counties in this district gathered here today for a conference, at the office of Earl Priest county assessor for Rush and Walter Bridges of Greenfield, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners was here giving advice to the assessors. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the spring assessment of personal property which will begin March 1.

THREE VARIETIES
BEST IN INDIANA*Selected Early Ohio and Irish Cobblers Given Preference for Early Planting Here*RURAL NEW YORKERS FOR LATE*Withstand Hot Dry Weather and Still Produce a Crop When all Other Varieties Fail

From north to south, anywhere and everywhere growers are reporting unusual success with selected Early Ohio and Irish Cobblers for early planting and Rural New Yorkers for late. Of course, there are dozens of varieties in this county but there are only a few best varieties and they are Cobblers, Ohio, and Rural. Cobblers seem to do best on the lighter sandy soils while Ohio prefer a heavier loam soil, but both insist on having plenty of plant food and moisture to produce a big yield.

For late plantings, yields from Rural of from 300 to 425 bushels per acre have been recorded along the Ohio river and up to the Michigan border. Rural is the universal late variety for this section as they withstand hot dry weather and still produce a crop when other varieties fail. In extreme southern Indiana "Bull Moose", a long season late potato, is commonly grown. If you have had unfavorable results from any of these reliable varieties lay it to a poor strain or something else besides the variety.

Most of the potatoes grown in the state are badly diseased if they have been grown here any length of time. For this reason they usually produce poor yields. Certified seed has produced an average of 58 bushels more potatoes than the average farm potato seed when both were planted side by side. This wide difference in favor of certified seed is largely due to the fact that it is grown for seed purposes, is of a good strain and comparatively free from disease.

Certified seed is potato seed that has been grown for seed purposes only, seed that is comparatively free from disease and vigorous and true to variety name. To insure that the planter gets certified seed, every bag of it bears the official tag of certification. This bears the name of grower, address, variety name, and the state in which the seed was grown along with the words "Certified" or "Inspected" seed. Along with all this goes some information on the card of the guarantee back of the seed. So if you are buying certified seed and its the best seed obtainable, insist on seeing the "Tag on the Bag." Such seed means an increase in yields and a start on the trail for profitable potato yields.

Certified seed on 10,000 farms in 78 counties in Indiana averaged 36 bushels more potatoes per acre than the common seed planted along side of it, according to report just issued by F. C. Gaylord, of Purdue University, who has charge of potato improvement work in the state.

A striking example, illustrative of thousands of others is that of Horace F. Wickard, a Hancock county farmer who reports, "Certified seed potatoes are far better than any other common or native seed here. Our yield was 33 bushels on 1/11 of an acre, this being about 298 bushels per acre. These potatoes were of fine quality."

"Farmers who want the old potato patch to come back and produce a real crop of potatoes should buy certified Early Ohio or Irish Cobblers for early plantings and Rural New Yorkers for late. This seed has doubled the yield in farm patches over the state," said Mr. Gaylord.

On account of the very low price of certified seed which is as low or lower than common kinds, farmers should get their orders in early as the demand will be heavy. Growers who are interested should communicate with their local county agent, who can tell them where to obtain this real seed stock, or with F. C. Gaylord, Purdue University.

TRAIN WOMEN FOR DEMONSTRATIONS

Purdue Home Economics Extension Workers Plan to Increase Value of Work Many Fold

TO BE HELD AT COUNTY SEAT

Local Leaders Will Be Asked to Attend All Day Training School For Instruction

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 20.—To meet the many demands for assistance from the 1971 townships in Indiana, the home economics division of the Purdue University extension department has worked out a plan by which local leaders from the various townships will meet at the county seat, attend an all day training school conducted by a member of the university staff, and then return to their respective communities and present the work to their friends and neighbors. This plan is expected to multiply manifold the value of the extension work being done for Indiana women, especially those on the farm, although thousands in the towns and cities also are taking advantage of it.

Four principal projects to be presented to the women in the communities, which are designed to aid the Indiana home improvement campaign are as follows: running water in the home; nutrition; clothing and millinery. After the women of the county have been called together, and the needs of their respective communities discussed, a county-wide program is agreed upon, county adopting but one project. A leader and an assistant will be selected from each township to attend the training school to be conducted by the university specialist.

Counties adopting the nutrition project will have one meeting each quarter throughout the year. The work will cover a food survey, a greater use of bread made from the Indiana grown wheat, canning of fruits, vegetables and meats, keeping good household accounts and the hot school lunch.

Counties adopting the clothing project will have assistance one day for four consecutive months assistance in selecting ready made garments taking measurements, alterations of patterns, and the making of a house dress, with a lesson on color, line, fitting and finishes. This makes this project most beneficial to women doing their own sewing. At the end of the project a county-wide meeting will be held and every woman who has completed the course will be present. The garments will be exhibited by townships. Such an exhibit is valuable in that women learn to know one another better, have the opportunity of seeing many garments which show individuality, as well as demonstrate good color combination and short cuts in sewing.

Two days will be required for the millinery project. A leader and assistant from each township will be given instructions on the selection of frame, colors, etc. The fundamentals in covering brims and various types of crowns, and some work on selecting trimmings, which will enable the woman to make, not a seasonal hat, but to make her own hats, will be given. Later two or more township leaders will be trained in putting on a township demonstration. Leaders and assistants in attendance will then present these demonstrations to the local women as they go back home.

The dress form work proved that local leaders were most efficient and that many women were reached that could not have been assisted otherwise.

Many requests for countrywide projects are being received by the Extension Department although work on home projects will not be started till March 1.

CHICKEN AND EGG VALUES WERE LOWER LAST YEAR

The combined farm value of chickens raised and eggs produced in 1922 is estimated at $854,207,000, by the United States Department of Agriculture. The value in 1921 was $900,820,000.

About 543,000,000 chickens were raised on farms in 1922, with a farm value of $354,199,000, as compared with 510,000,000 chickens raised in 1921 valued at $362,253,000. Egg production totaled 1,962,356,000 dozen eggs of a value of $500,008,000, as compared with 1,937,486,000 dozen eggs with a value of $538,567,000 in 1921.

Of the chicken eggs produced in 1922, large quantities were consumed in industries in the manufacture of other than food products, and about 113,000,000 dozen were used to produce chickens, the department says.

The average farm price of chickens raised in 1922 was 65c per fowl, compared with 71 cents in 1921, and with 86c in 1920. The average farm price of chicken eggs was 25.5 cents a dozen in 1922, compared with 29.3 cents per dozen in 1921 and with 44.4 cents in 1920.

It is estimated that there were 412,000,000 chickens on farms January 1, 1922, a time of year when the number of chicks is low. There were 386,000,000 chickens on farms January 1, 1921, and on January 1, 1920, there were 360,000,000, according to census figures.

Fifty Thouand Women

would comprise a vast army, yet that is the number who have replied to a questionnaire recently sent out by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn, Mass. Ninety-eight out of every 100 letters from these women contained positive assurances that they have been benefited or restored to health by taking this old-fashioned root and herb medicine. This is most remarkable evidence of its power over the ills of women. Therefore, with 98 chances out of one hundred that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will overcome such ailments for you, why should you continue to go through life in pain and suffering?

A HUDSON SEDAN

"To those unacquainted with manufacturing problems, it is remarkable to note the manner in which a large production of a certain article can reduce its price. As this is a matter which should interest all automobile buyers, a concrete example will not be out of place here.

"Biddle & Smart, at Amesbury, Mass., make bodies exclusively for Hudson. They are one of the oldest and best known body manufacturers in the United States and their product is everywhere recognized for the highest quality, workmanship and design. They are now concentrating their entire efforts on the new Hudson Sedan.

"Their establishment is located in Amesbury, a small city in the Merrimac valley of Massachusetts. It is the important industry of the town. For many years the most skilled artisans of the vicinity have found employment there. Horse drawn coaches and carriages of the highest type were its product for many years. After the New England manner, fathers worked at their trade all their lives there, and then saw their sons begin their apprenticeships.

"The products today are practically custom-built. Into them go the individuality and the skill of the workmen. The aluminum panels are hand shaped to the framework. The decorative moldings are rolled in. The word craftsmen has been much over-used of late; but the men at Biddle & Smart deserve the term, for they are masters of the craft of carriage building.

"The present Hudson Sedan is a possibility at its present price, because of an exceptionally advantageous arrangement made by Hudson with Biddle & Smart. The entire working force is now devoted exclusively to the building of this one type of body. And thus without in any way letting down on the materials or grade of workmanship, Biddle & Smart is able to produce at a hitherto impossible low price. In this Biddle & Smart sedan, Hudson has one of the very finest and most aristocratic enclosed cars in motordom.

"When prices are not told beforehand, buyers generally think the Sedan is actually several hundred dollars above the actual figures."

THE ONLY CREATOR:—In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made.—John 1: 1, 3.

Prosperity

The anvil chorus is giving way to the united voice of prosperity. Those who have been seeing nothing but disaster have been drowned out by the on-step of better conditions.

The commercial pages of the newspapers tell the story as nothing else can. One of the prime factors in the return of business to its natural high estate in the affairs of men in the United States is the improvement in farming.

Prices of all the principal farm products have increased over a year ago. At the end of 1922 corn was worth 50 percent more than a year before, cotton had increased nearly 50 percent, wheat 10 percent, wool 70 percent. The aggregate increase in the value of farm crops in 1922 over 1921 is estimated at $3,000,000,000.

With a steadily increasing export trade, and a materially improved situation in our foreign relations as a result of the adjustment of the most important of our foreign loans, the outlook for foreign commerce during the present year is all that could be desired. The improvement in foreign exchange values, the lessened danger of foreign controversies, the promotion of peace in the western hemisphere, the reduction of federal expenditures, all confirm the evidence of our domestic situation that we are well started on an era of industrial and commercial prosperity.

A resume of the facts in these and other particulars gives an interesting and encouraging picture of the upward swing of industry and trade. At the end of January, 1923, the United States Steel orders aggregated 6,910,000 tons as compared with 4,241,000 tons at the same time one year ago. Pig iron production during the month of December, 1922, amounted to 3,229,000 tons as compared with 1,644,000 tons in the same month a year before, showing an increase of approximately 100 percent.

Bank clearings, which register with approximate accuracy the amount of business in progress, show an increase of about 15 percent thus far in the present calendar year as compared with the corresponding period last year. Money is not only moving more freely, but more of it is being saved by people of small means, as indicated by the fact that savings banks deposits are $1,500,000,000 greater than a year ago. Holder of Victory Bonds on which interest has ceased have been slow in presenting them for payment, thus demonstrating that they are not pressed for money. Repayments of loans to the War Finance Corporation have been prompt and more extensive than many had expected.

In 136 cities for which building statistics are completed by Bradstreets the aggregate value of structures for which permits were issued in January 1923 was $166,162,000 as compared with $121,594,000 in the corresponding month of 1922. From every part of the country reports are received of scarcity of labor in all the building trades, with wages of skilled labor as high as $12 and even $15 a day. There is ready demand for the lumber output.

Rural Police Bill Dead

The state senate showed rare judgment Tuesday afternoon by defeating the rural police bill by a vote of 32 to 14. By this majority the senators voted to postpone the measure indefinitely which means that the bill can not be reconsidered under the rules of the senate.

Senator Robert L. Moorhead, its sponsor, was the only one who could say a good word for the measure. When he had concluded his speech, a dozen senators jumped to their feet, eager to talk against it.

The principal arguments used against the bill were that there was no demand for rural police from the rural communities, that the expense of such a department would be out of proportion to the good done and that the police departments of cities had not shown themselves especially valuable in the detection of criminals.

All that was said against the bill is actually true. The demand for rural police did not come from the farmers or the small towns because they do not feel the need of such an organization. The bulk of the crime is committed in large centers of population. Crime in rural communities is generally traced down because the residents of such communities have a fair knowledge of the people of the community and are prepared to fix responsibility when laws are violated. They always have the co-operation of the police forces of county seat towns, not to mention sheriffs and their deputies in every county, who are peace officers sworn to enforce the law.

COLLEGE WRESTLING GETS TOO LADY-LIKE

Criticism Was Struck At Popular Sport In Big Ten Conference By Prof. Elmer E. Jones

RULES ELIMINATE SKILL

Chicago, Feb. 20.—College wrestling is getting too lady-like for the athlete, and is now just plain setting up and rolling around exercise for the campus tea hounds.

This criticism was struck at wrestling in the big ten conference today by Professor Elmer E. Jones, director of the school of education at Northwestern University and former wrestling coach of Indiana.

"Big ten wrestling bouts have degenerated to pink tea affairs," declared Jones. "The rules are such that all the science and skill has been eliminated, and the interest in the match made negligible for the spectator."

Jones said the rule which provided a contestant must have an advantage of one minute in time behind his opponent made the match a mere riding contest, the man who rides the other fellow longest winning the decision.

Hittin' 'Em & Missin' 'Em

If Anderson is playing in a slump these days, which tradition says they are doing, it would be high time for Rushville to spring that big surprise on Coach Stagg's team Friday night.

Elwood has been going too good this season to be true. Why not play 'em off their feet Saturday night, gang, and end the season with a bang.

OUR GUESS TONIGHT

Garfield of Terre Haute clashes with Vincennes tonight. Our dope on that game will be about a 47 to 25 score, in favor of the Adicetown team.

WATCH FRANKLIN, FOLKS

Franklin has got started again, and we're thinkin' that they are going to be a hard bunch to stop at the state meet this year.

If you high school players would remember to follow in your shots, and keep an accurate eye on the goal, you could win almost any game. We'd practice a little harder on those foul goals, because many a game hinges on the one or two points from fouls.

Robinson, Connersville center, had an off night last Saturday when Mance drubbed them. Here's hoping that Robinson and Flannigan each have off nights when they play over here.

WE'D LIKE TO LIVE THERE OURSELVES, TEAM

Deryl Case, senior in high school, has announced that all Rushville players will be taken care of at his home, Sixth and Main street, during the sectional tourney. All of the squad will eat and sleep there, and will be under the constant attention of the coach.

If Rushville loses their first game, we'd kick 'em out of the house, Deryl.

NO DANGER, YOU WON'T LOOK THROUGH ANY GLASS

Dear Hittin' 'Em—You printed a letter the other day from a Loyal Fan, who said he didn't see why the handstand wasn't moved so he could see the games. You tell that fellow these days, which tradition says that there has been plenty of seats all season some place else. Besides us fellows in the band want to have good seats. We don't want to look through glass banking boards at any basketball game.

Yours,
A BAND BOY,

WE DIDN'T HEAR OF IT

Dear Hittin' 'Em—"Did the Webb basketball team play any place last Friday night? We didn't see any mention of it."

"Inquisitive Fan"

WE CAN'T ANSWER THIS EITHER:

Mr. Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em—Did the Moscow team ever get back home from the Cincinnati tourney? You didn't say anything about it in your column.

"Inquisitive Fan 2"

GO GET 'EM COLTS

Stevie and his Colts are getting real cocky now for sure. Not being satisfied with playing a double header last Friday and winning both of 'em, they will tackle the Arlington high school's first team Friday night at Arlington, while Rushville is playing Anderson. This is a big game for the Colts, and we fear for 'em, but just the same we wish 'em all kinds of luck. Rushville fans who can't go to Anderson, ought to take a night off and follow the Colts over to Arlington.

THEY DESERVE SWEATERS ALSO

Then on the other hand, it's a funny thing why the members of the second team don't get in on those sweaters. Members of the first team are awarded fine sweaters for their service, but the second team gets only experience. Why don't you fans get together and stage a game between the Colts and the first team, and turn over the evening's profits for sweaters for the second team.

IF IT WASN'T FOR THE SECOND TEAM THIS YEAR, THE CROWDS WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN ONE-HALF. PEOPLE LIKE TO SEE ONE TEAM WIN GAMES, AT ANY RATE.

Looks Bad for 1924 Olympics

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 20.—America's chances for another victory in the 1924 Olympics at Paris are none too bright. While several of the European nations have improved since 1920, the United States not only has not kept abreast, but has fallen behind a little in development.

American officials came back from Antwerp games three years ago convinced that something would have to be done to develop some distance runners, but nothing has been done. At the present time it even looks like the American runners will make a poorer showing in the events above the quarter mile than they did in 1920.

Sweden, developing most rapidly in every department of track and in-field sports, probably will give America the most opposition. The Swedes will win a lot of points and they will be helped by some of the smaller nations who will cut further into the United States.

If the Swedes develop some good sprinters and some weight men, they will have a great chance to win the championship.

America's team will be a veteran outfit as, with very few exceptions, no athletes have been developed since 1920 good enough to make the team: Gourdin, the world's champion broad jumper; LeConey and McAllister, the sprinters; Brown, the Dartmouth high jumper; and Hellfrich, the middle distance runner, are about the only ones that may make the team who didn't go to Antwerp.

Only six athletes on the 1920 team had had previous Olympic experience—Dan Ahearn, Pat McDonald, Ted Meredith and Murray, Pat Ryan and Matt McGrath.

With the exception of Meredith and Murray, they will also be on the next team probably and with them as veterans will be Tom Campbell, Jimmy Connolly, Sol Butler, Mike Devaney, Jake Driscoll, Earl Johnson, Bob Lengendre, Jack Merchant, Brick Muller, Loren Murchinson, Charley Paddock, Joie Ray, Johnny Murphy, Willie Plant, Allen Woodring, Ray Watson and Frank Zuna.

FIGHT RESULTS

Newark, N. J.—Charley Weinert, Newark heavy weight knocked out George K. Brown, Chicago in the first round.

Washington Court House, Ohio—Tut Jackson, Washington Court House colored heavyweight won a 12 round decision from Jamaica Kid, New York.

Basketball Scores

Wisconsin 16; Michigan 11.
Illinois 27; Minnesota 18.
Wabash 26; Notre Dame 21.
Bradley 25; Milliken 23.

A TAME EXHIBITION

Detroit, Feb. 20.—Jess Willard disappointed a packed house here last night in a tame four round exhibition with Harry Drake of London. The former champion refused to strip down to the customary boxing tight, appearing in full length trunks. His only ambition while in the ring, it seemed, was to keep Drake at a distance, which he did without much trouble.

LOCAL TEAM IS DEFEATED

New Salem Youngsters Win Game From Cubs, 29 to 28

The Rushville Cubs, a juvenile team, was defeated by the New Salem team Monday night by the close score of 29 to 28, in a game that was hard fought. The local youngsters were in the lead 19 to 14 at the first half, but weakened in the final period of play. Perkins starred for the losers while Wilson went best for New Salem.

The Rushville team lined-up with Perkins and Weakley at forwards; Mitchell at center; Caldwell and Cherry guards. New Salem with Grinstead and Wilson, forwards; Crawley, center; Emsweller and Stiers, guards. Field goals, Perkins 9, Mitchell 3, Caldwell, Grinstead, 2, Wilson 2, Crawley, 3, Wilson 7. Foul goals, Cherry 2 out of 3, Wilson 1 out of 4.

DIFFERENT VERSIONS GIVEN

Eye-Witness Stories Of Slaying Of Labor Leader In Chicago

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Eye-witnesses told different versions today of the slaying of Steven Kelleher by "Dapper Dan" McCarthy in a gun duel in a crowded cabaret here. Both men were prominent in labor circles.

Several witnesses said McCarthy shot in self-defense after Kelleher had fired twice. Others declared McCarthy was the aggressor throughout.

McCarthy was held in jail pending the inquest which will be held Friday. He blamed the tragedy on Mrs. Kelleher, with whom he quarreled shortly before the killing.

THE HOME GARDEN

What is Home without a Garden?

YOUR GARDEN COLOR SCHEME

Color arrangement is now regarded as most important in ornamental gardening and is enlisting the most careful study. A gardener for the most part should be guided by his own taste and use the colors which he particularly admires. If he prefers blue and purple to scarlet, orange and yellow, he should plan a garden in which his favorites would be the prevailing tones with touches of contrasting and harmonizing colors to emphasize and relieve the blue and purple.

Pale yellows and pinks used with blues of the lighter shades, and orange used in contrast with lavenders and purples, make admirable combinations.

The orange African marigolds planted with ageratum make a picture to remember. The ageratum also is excellent with the velvety, orange, maroon and mahogany shades of the French marigolds.

As a general rule, in planning for color effect one may start at one end with the true blues, then use pink and rose shades, then yellows shading into orange, then the scarlets and deeper shades, then a little of service when it is thoroughly understood," Hugh Mauzy stated, in speaking on "Citizenship and the World at Large, Rotary International."

He pointed out that prohibition did not make much headway as long as it was handled by moralists, but when business men were awakened to its economic value, they readily got behind it.

"Rotary's aim," he continued, in giving statistics on the growth of the organization and its spread into 37 countries, "is not to populate the earth, but here and there a group is banded together for the purpose of practicing unselfish service."

The program closed with a discussion of "Citizenship and the Home" by John M. Walker. He said the real problem is the home in the United States and expressed the doubt if any fundamental institution is being attacked like the home.

"It must be defended against its friends," he asserted, pleading for a return of the old-fashioned family life where the deepest note in the home life is the recognition of the Creator of all things and the family prayer.

ring upon at least a six months hold-out against the French.

"Democracy," born of expediency has gone so far that heads of the Krupp industries and others are meeting labor representatives every few days outside the occupied areas and—wonder of wonders when one considers the traditions of Ruhr feudalism—breaking bread with the horny handed toilers and their agents.

The fact that the socialists' demands are insisting upon negotiations does not mean that the Ruhr's resistance is collapsing.

I have just returned from a visit to the haunts of the workers. Everywhere I found the strongest resentment against the invasion the strongest desire to defeat French militarism.

Chrysmanski explains the sentiment thus:

"We are ready for an honorable negotiations. As long as our homes peace; in fact, we are insisting upon are ravaged with the bayonet, the innocently affected working people will stand unshakably together.

"But this does not mean that workers desire to carry the battle to a point where we are bled while for we know that after this battle is over we must bleed some more.

"We recommend a reasonable reparation. We are willing to do our utmost to restore devastated France. But we must fight French militarism the same as German.

"We want an honorable peace of understanding and insist that nego-

GIVE $80,495 TO RILEY FUND

Announcement of Indianapolis Rotary Club Subscription Made

Indianapolis, Feb. 20.—Announcement that members of the Indianapolis Rotary Club have subscribed $80,495 to the building fund of the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children, now under construction here, was made at the club meeting today.

With the announcement, a movement was started for the raising of a special memorial fund of several hundred thousand dollars among all Rotary clubs of the state. Kiwanis clubs are now raising a fund of $150,000 for construction of one of the ward buildings of the hospital.

Walter E. Pittsford, former district governor of Rotary, Arthur E. Baxter and Frank E. Floyd, widely known among Rotarians of Indiana were in charge of the Indianapolis campaign for the hospital.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 16.

A gift is not taxable income to the person receiving it, nor may it be deducted from gross income by the person giving it. For purpose of the income-tax law a gift may be defined as "voluntary transfer of property, real or personal, including money, without a recompense or consideration."

While the value of property received as a gift is not taxable, income from such property is subject to the tax for the year in which received. For example, a person who inherits a piece of property, should not include in his return the value of such property, but must report the rent therefrom as income.

If, however, a decedent leaves by will a legacy to a friend or relatives for services rendered the bequest is "consideration."

Where an executor receives a bequest conditioned upon the continuance of his duties as executor, such bequest is deemed to be compensation for his services and is taxable income to the executor.

Pensions paid employees in consideration of former services are not gifts, and must be included as income.

A tip for a personal service is not a gift, and must be reported as income by the recipient. Waiters, porters and others serving the public are advised to keep careful account of such donations.

A fee received by a clergyman for officiating at a wedding or funeral is to be returned as income, because it is compensation for services.

If a debt is forgiven without consideration, it can not be deducted because it then becomes a gift. Deductions claimed for bad debts on account of loans to friends and relatives will be carefully scrutinized for the reason that in many instances such loans are really gifts, the lender having had no expectation of repayment at the time of making the "loan."

Kellogg's Bran is prepared to do one thing—AND DO IT WELL!

Kellogg's Bran will permanently relieve constipation, mild or chronic. It is scientifically prepared for that purpose. It is ALL BRAN, therefore it has the necessary bulk to assure results. Foods with a small bran content cannot afford permanent relief.

When your physician or friends advise you to eat Kellogg's Bran, you follow-on for the purpose of eliminating a dangerous clogging-up and toxic condition of your system. You can't afford to take half-way measures! Think of the lost time and the dangers of illness you are daily dodging!

What you must have is real bran—KELLOGG'S BRAN, and if you will eat it regularly each day you will become a different person within a week or so. Kellogg's Bran, with its natural bulk, sweeps, cleanses and purifies. It not only gives relief, but it regulates the bowels. Every member of your family should eat it—every day—at least two tablespoons; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Try Kellogg's Bran mixed with a hot cereal, or cook it with hot cereals, adding two tablespoons of Bran for each person. Other popular ways are to sprinkle Kellogg's Bran on hot or cold cereals or to eat it as a cereal with hot milk. You can make delicious bakery products with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes on every package.

Kellogg's Bran is not only nationally sold in grocery stores, but can be had in individual packages in first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. Be certain to eat Kellogg's Bran daily for health's sake!

AMUSEMENTS

At The Mystic Today

Wild, rough, snow-covered country where night makes right and men are now slow to use their fists furnishes a striking background for Norman Dawn's stirring picturization of Jack London's famous novel "The Son of the Wolf," which had its initial presentation Monday. It will be seen again today only at the Mystic Theatre.

The story of "The Son of the Wolf" has to do with the adventures of one Scruff Mackenzie, a stout-hearted young man, amid the vast snows of the Northland, and of his love for Chook-Ra, and Indian maid

About these characters has been woven a gripping tale that glows with vitality. Among those in the cast are Edith Roberts, late star of Cecil De Mille's "Saturday Night," Wheeler Oakman, as Scruff, and other favorites of the screen.

A master of out door photography, Mr. Dawson has given us some of the most striking examples of his art in "The Son of the Wolf." Scenery have such gorgeous scenic backgrounds been provided by Mother Nature for a film drama. Mr. Dawson selected the most beautiful spots in the Yosemite Valley, in which to stage his stirring picturization of the London novel and in all of the big snow scenes the grandeur of the towering mountains is marvelously reflected.

Tom Meighan At Princess

Thomas Meighan, perhaps the most popular actor of the screen today, has a delightful role in his new Paramount picture, "Back Home and Broke," which gives impressive evidence of being a strong box-office attraction on its first showing at the Princess theatre last night. It will be seen again today.

This new Meighan vehicle, written especially for the star by George Ade, the humorist, play upon the heart strings with an effect such as only a student of human nature like Mr. Ade could secure. Having for its theme the story of a young man who left home to find success in the west, Mr. Ade has not only vested it with human interest and humor, he has given the story a novel twist. Usually the youth either returns home broke or not at all. One might judge from the title that the hero in this story came home broke, but there's where the surprise comes in.

The picture, directed by Alfred Green, has a clever supporting cast, and is well presented. Lila Lee, one of the best screen actresses, is Mr. Meighan's best woman. The cast includes Charles Abbe, Florence Dixon, Frederick Burton, Eddie Borden and other notable screen players.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MEN END PARLEY

Only Deal Discussed is Mis-Deal as Eddie Collins is Still Member of White Sox

1923 SCHEDULE IS ADOPTED

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—The American League baseball magnates folded their tents today and departed for their home bailiwicks after a successful spring meeting.

The only deal to be talked over was a mis-deal as Eddie Collins is still a member of the Chicago White Sox.

The following was ruled by the moguls:

1.—The American League schedule as framed for 1923 was adopted with Washington opening at Philadelphia; Boston at New York; Detroit at St. Louis and Chicago at Cleveland on April 18.

2.—Players of the American League shall not be numbered.

3.—Home run zones are not to be established.

4.—The proposed baseball monument at Washington is to be for all baseball and not an American League monument.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

100 WAYS To Make Money

By BILLY WINNER

If I Could Entertain—

If I could sing or dance or perform magic, or recite, I'd make money with this talent by giving performances at clubs, private parties, etc.

I'd let people know how well I could entertain through The Daily Republican Want Ads. It wouldn't take me long to tell most of the people in Rushville what I could do.

This would be an easy, pleasant way to make money in my spare time. I'd get my Want Ad to the Daily Republican post haste. No waiting for profits for me. I'd rather go out after them.
